TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Introduction

Acceptance of Terms: By enrolling in to the Programme provided by 'The Med Prep,' you agree to comply with and be bound by the terms and conditions outlined in this document.

2. Enrollment

Our courses welcome medical students, junior doctors, and any medical professionals aspiring to work in the UK.

To enroll, you are required to complete the online registration process, ensuring the provision of accurate and comprehensive information.

Enrollment acceptance is contingent upon availability, meeting eligibility criteria, and the successful completion of the registration process. Upon successful enrollment and payment, access to the courses is granted.

3. Withdrawal

Withdrawal before/during the Programme

- Within the 14-Day Cooling Off Period
- A full refund will be provided, minus an administrative fee of £500.

If the programme commences within this 14-day period

- A deduction of 20% of the total course fee will be applied.

Withdrawal During or Outside the Cooling Off Period

- No refund will be granted.

4. Cancellation

Cancellation of the Programme

Refunds will not be issued for decisions to change one's mind or discontinue the course.

Cancellation of the Programme by The Med Prep

A full refund will be provided, or an alternative suitable option will be offered.

Cancellation of the programme after UKMLA AKT Exam

A 33% fee deduction will be applied. Afterward, no refund will be processed if moved to CPSA preparation.

In rare cases, if you fail the exam four times or utilize the maximum attempt and fail, The Med Prep will issue a refund of up to 80% of the course fee.

5. Payment Options

Tuition fees can be paid either in pre-arranged instalments or as a single lump sum.

6. Financial Responsibility

Students are responsible for ensuring they have sufficient funds to cover their fees.

7. Limited Circumstances for Refunds

Refunds will only be considered under limited circumstances. Changes of mind are not eligible for refunds.

8. Grounds for Refund.

Refunds may be considered if: Visa refusal. In the event of a visa refusal, submit the Visa Refusal letter issued by the Home Office along with the refund request for evaluation.

Severe, unanticipated, and exceptional circumstances. If circumstances beyond your control prevent course commencement, contact The Med Prep with details and evidence for consideration.

9. Exclusion

The programme fee does not include any exam fees, including but not limited to those for IELTS/OET, UKMLA PLAB 1 & 2, Clinical Assessment, and Membership Part 1 Exam. Additionally, participants are responsible for covering expenses such as GMC registration fees, Epic verification fees, visa costs, appointment bookings, airfare, and food. For further information, please contact our team.

10. Accommodation

Student accommodation is managed by third parties.

Once accommodation is confirmed and booking details are issued, no refund will be considered.

11. Refund Requests

All refund requests must be formally submitted to The Med Prep, accompanied by relevant documentation. Evaluation is contingent upon evidence, adherence to timelines, and is subject to the discretion of The Med Prep.

12. Intellectual Property

All course materials, including lectures, notes, and assessments, are the intellectual property of 'The Med Prep.' Unauthorized distribution or reproduction is prohibited.

13. Termination

'The Med Prep' reserves the right to terminate enrollment for violations of terms or other reasons deemed appropriate.

14. Collaboration with other providers to deliver your programme.

Where collaboration with another provider occurs, students must adhere to the applicable rules and regulations of that provider.

15. Third-party providers

In some cases, third-party providers may be involved in the operation. Adherence to their rules and regulations is essential.

16. Immigration advisory

'The Med Prep' is not an immigration advisor. Visa approval is subject to the UK visa and immigration department.

17. Visa Approval

While we endeavor to furnish you with requisite documents and information, visa approval remains at the discretion of the UK Visa and Immigration Department (UKVI).

18. UKFPO Programme Timeline

Timely adherence to timelines within the Graduate Internship Programme (GIP) is crucial for progression to subsequent stages. Failure to comply may result in delayed commencement of the UK Postgraduate Foundation Programme (UKPFO).

As you are aware, the UKFPO intake occurs only once a year, necessitating a one-year wait to reapply. Rest assured; we are committed to providing continuous support throughout your journey.

19. Exam Dates

The examinations, including IELTS or OET, UKMLA PLAB 1 AKT, UKMLA PLAB 2 CPSA, Membership Part 1, and Clinical Assessment, are highly sought-after. Some of these exams experience significant demand, making it challenging to secure timely booking. In such instances, you must be prepared to promptly book available dates and accommodate necessary travel arrangements.

20. Unsuccessful in Exams

While we strive to equip you with comprehensive support, exam success hinges on personal dedication and hard work. In the event of an unsuccessful outcome, reattempting exams may be necessary, potentially resulting in delays to your entry into the UK Foundation Programme (UKFPO). We are committed to guiding you through this process and offering unwavering support.

21. Course delivery

Courses may be delivered online, live, or face-to-face. Alternative options can be arranged if unable to attend. The UK medical PG programme is personalised, tailored to individual capabilities, with the ultimate goal of obtaining a medical license in the UK.

22. Endorsement Disclaimer

The Med Prep is not endorsed by any UK institution or government organisation.

The programme is not accredited or affiliated with any institution. CPD certificates belong to individual programs. The program does not grant student visas or eligibility for UK visas.

The Med Prep is independent and not associated with entities such as the General Medical Council (GMC), the UK Foundation Programme Office (UKFPO), and the UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI). Each of these organisations operates autonomously, adhering to their own protocols and guidelines. We strictly adhere to the directives set forth by these bodies and do not exert any influence over their final decisions.

23. Protecting Your Data

It is your responsibility to provide and update contact details promptly. We process personal data in accordance with applicable Data Protection law.

24. Changes to Terms and Conditions

We reserve the right to change these terms and conditions at any time without notice, provided changes are beneficial to students, not significant, in response to changes in laws, regulations, or to rectify errors.

25. Applicable Law

These terms and conditions are governed by the laws of the United Kingdom.
